Series History

Missouri State is 11-2 all-time against Little Rock, with the home team winning 11 of the last 13 meetings, the exception being MSU wins in Little Rock in 2012 and last season. The Lady Bears and Trojans have met 11 times in the 2000s, with MSU going 9-2 with an average margin of victory of 21.6 points in those nine wins.

Scouting Little Rock

Little Rock was 1-4 against a difficult schedule entering its Nov. 26 game against Saint Louis. A WNIT team last season, the Trojans began the year with a victory against North Texas, and have suffered defeats against Oklahoma and Texas A&M. Sharde' Collins (12.0) and Kaitlyn Pratt (10.8) score in double figures for Little Rock, and through five games the Trojans score 44.8 points and allow 57.8 while shooting 30.9 percent overall, 21.2 percent from long range and 70.4 percent from the foul line.

Scouting the Lady Bears

Missouri State has a new look in 2016-17, with junior guard Liza Fruendt leading the way in scoring at 16.2 points per game. Six Lady Bears average at least 5.6 points in a balanced offense that has seen eight different players score in double figures so far this season. MSU owns a plus-3.2 rebounding margin, with 10 players grabbing between 2.4 and 4.6 boards per game. As a team, the Lady Bears average 66.2 points and allow 71.0 while shooting 38.4 percent overall, 30.5 percent on 3-pointers and 79.6 percent from the charity stripe.

Last Time Out

Missouri State earned a 65-58 victory Wednesday afternoon over a talented Alaska Anchorage club in the third-place game of the GCI Great Alaska Shootout at the Alaska Airlines Center.

The Lady Bears (2-3) shot 57 percent in the fourth quarter to knock off a UAA squad that advanced to the NCAA Division II title game last season and had won 71 of its last 77 games entering the day.

Aubrey Buckley matched her career high with 12 points for the second consecutive game, Liza Fruendt scored a game-high 16 points and Lexi Hughes added 10 to go with a career-high four steals. The Lady Bears shot 45.8 percent overall, owned a 29-22 rebounding margin and continued their solid shooting from the foul line with a 15-for-17 effort.

UAA did not trail in the first quarter, opening up a five-point lead at 11-6 with 4:45 remaining and holding it to 17-12 after 10 minutes of play. The Seawolves grew the margin to 22-14 with a 3-pointer at the 8:09 mark before the Lady Bears began to chip away and eventually gain the lead.

A steal and score from Lexi Hughes with 4:33 left made it 24-21, Aubrey Buckley snagged an offensive board and scored for 26-25, and Alexa Willard's transition earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior in 1999.

Harper and her husband Jon, who has served as an assistant on her coaching staff at Western Carolina, NC State, and now at Missouri State, welcomed their first child, Jackson, in November 2013.

High Scoring Staff

The 2015-16 Lady Bear coaching staff combined to score 5,087 points at the Division I level during their playing careers with four All-America seasons, four Final Four appearances and three national championships.

Head Coach Kellie (Jolly) Harper won three national titles at Tennessee under the legendary Pat Summitt, including a 39-0 junior season in 1998. The point guard scored 894 points and dished out 452 assists.

The NCAA's all-time leading scorer, assistant Jackie Stiles poured in 3,393 points for Missouri State from 1997-2001. The three-time All-American and 2001 National Player of the Year led the Lady Bears to their second Final Four that season.

Assistant Jennifer Sullivan enjoyed a standout career at Memphis, piling up 800 points, 310 rebounds and 99 steals as a three-year starter for the Tigers.

MSU Peaks in The Valley

The Lady Bears are 289-139 all-time in MVC play with a 168-45 home record against league foes. Missouri State has won at least a share of 12 regular-season titles and nine conference tournaments since the 1989-90 season. MSU has played in 15 of the 24 Valley tournament championship games and 15 of the 31 title games since the inception of the Gateway Conference Tournament in 1983.

Missouri State All-Time

Missouri State is in its 48th season of women's collegiate basketball and has an all-time record of 816-568 (.590). MSU began formal competition in 1969 and, with a 24-10 mark in 2016, secured its 31st winning season. The Lady Bears have made 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by Final Four trips in 1992 and 2001 to go along with a Sweet 16 appearance in 1993.

The Lady Bears are in their 35th NCAA Division I season and 25th MVC year. MSU was in AIAW competition on the state, regional and national levels through the 1981-82 season, moved to Division I and Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference play in 1982-83 and started MVC competition in 1992-93 when the Gateway merged with The Valley.

"Q" Rating

After compiling a 325-108 record in Hammons Student Center over its 32-year stint as home of Missouri State basketball, the Lady Bears posted a 10-4 mark at home in 2015-16 to run their seven-year record to 83-38 in JQH Arena.

The "Q" is the fourth regular home of Missouri State women's basketball in the four-decade history of the program. The Lady Bears utilized both McDonald Arena and the Greenwood Laboratory School gym from 1969 until Hammons Student Center opened in 1976. MSU continued to play some of its home games at McDonald through the 1979-80 season.

Fandemonium

With the conclusion of their eighth season in JQH Arena, the Lady Bears finished first in the MVC standings in terms of attendance, drawing 47,594 fans in 14 home dates in 2015-16 for a 3,400 average. MSU has now led the MVC in attendance 24 times in the past 27 seasons, and ranked 32nd nationally in 2015-16.

Since the 1990-91 season, Missouri State has ranked in the top 20 nationally in average attendance 19 times, including a string of 10 straight top-10 finishes from 1992 through the 2000-01 season. The Lady Bears led all of Division I women's basketball in attendance during the 1992-93 season by averaging 7,421 fans per contest.

MSU ranks in the top 10 among all Division I women's basketball programs in average home attendance over the last two-plus decades, and is joined on that list by the likes of Tennessee and Connecticut. Additionally, the Lady Bears have finished in the top 50 nationally in per game attendance for 29 of the last 30 years.

Stiles Gets Statue

MSU assistant coach and NCAA Division I all-time leading scorer Jackie Stiles will have a statue constructed in her likeness outside JQH Arena. The unveiling will take place at a date to be announced later this season.

Lady Bears on the Air

For the 32nd consecutive year, Missouri State Lady Bear basketball will be broadcast by Meyer Communications, which operates Springfield radio station KTXR (101.3 FM). All games will air live on either KTXR or "The Jock" 98.7 FM, and can also be heard over
