Game Overview

The Missouri State Lady Bears renew their rivalry with Missouri for the fifth consecutive season Friday when they visit Mizzou Arena for a 7 p.m. tip.

Missouri State is 2-4 on the year, and Friday's contest will be the fifth true road game of the season and fourth against a Power Five school. It's also MSU's fourth away game against a Southeastern Conference school in the last two seasons, with the Lady Bears owning a 2-1 record in the previous three outings.

The Lady Bears are primed for improvement once the calendar turns to December if recent history is any indication. In coach Kellie Harper's first three seasons, MSU owns a 52-28 (.650) post-November record.

Series History

Missouri State trails 18-10 in the all-time series, though only eight games have been played since 1990. The teams have played in each of the last four seasons, splitting those contests, while the Lady Bears have won four of the last six dating to 2003.

Scouting Missouri

Missouri is 5-2 on the year and receiving top-25 votes in both the AP and Coaches polls. The Tigers' losses came at 2016 Final Four participant Washington and a neutral contest against Georgia Tech. Sophie Cunningham leads MU in scoring at 14.6 points per game, and Cierra Porter chips in 14 points and 8.9 rebounds per contest. As a team, Missouri scores 66.1 points and allows 58.7 while shooting 41.7 percent overall, 28.2 percent on 3-pointers and 78.6 percent from the foul line.

Scouting the Lady Bears

Missouri State has a new look in 2016-17, with junior guard Liza Fruendt leading the way in scoring at 14.0 points per game. Six Lady Bears average at least 6.0 points in a balanced offense that has seen eight different players score in double figures so far this season. MSU owns a plus-2.2 rebounding margin, with 10 players grabbing between 2.3 and 4.5 boards per game. As a team, the Lady Bears average 63.0 points and allow 68.8 while shooting 38.1 percent overall, 34.0 percent on 3-pointers and 77.6 percent from the charity stripe.

Last Time Out

The visiting Little Rock Trojans used a 19-0 run midway through the second half Monday evening to hand Missouri State a 58-47 loss and spoil the home opener at JQH Arena.

The Lady Bears trailed 26-24 at halftime and tied the score at 28-28 with 5:54 left in the third quarter on an Aubrey Buckley layup. MSU briefly held a pair of two-point leads, the second on a Lexi Hughes bucket with 3:28 remaining, before the Trojans scored the game's next 19 points until Lee Ann Polowy's second 3-pointer of the contest stopped the run and made it 52-38 with 5:57 remaining in the game.

Polowy added another trey in the fourth period to match a career high with nine points on three 3-pointers, and she also dished out a career-high four assists. Buckley's basket with 17 seconds left made for the final margin and gave her nine points, Hughes scored nine and Danielle Gitzen had eight.

Missouri State opened the game on a 10-2 run, and the Trojans immediately responded with a 9-0 run to take the lead with 2:52 left in the first quarter. After Gitzen's 3-pointer made it 13-11 MSU, the Lady Bears went more than seven minutes without scoring until a Hughes triple cut the deficit to 18-16 with 5:15 until half. The senior twice hit driving shots for one-point leads late in the half before Little Rock closed on

MSU Peaks in The Valley

The Lady Bears are 289-139 all-time in MVC play with a 168-45 home record against league foes. Missouri State has won at least a share of 12 regular-season titles and nine conference tournaments since the 1989-90 season. MSU has played in 15 of the 24 Valley tournament championship games and 15 of the 31 title games since the inception of the Gateway Conference Tournament in 1983.

Missouri State All-Time

Missouri State is in its 48th season of women's collegiate basketball and has an all-time record of 816-569 (.589). MSU began formal competition in 1969 and, with a 24-10 mark in 2016, secured its 31st winning season. The Lady Bears have made 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by Final Four trips in 1992 and 2001 to go along with a Sweet 16 appearance in 1993.

The Lady Bears are in their 35th NCAA Division I season and 25th MVC year. MSU was in AIAW competition on the state, regional and national levels through the 1981-82 season, moved to Division I and Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference play in 1982-83 and started MVC competition in 1992-93 when the Gateway merged with The Valley.

"Q" Rating

After compiling a 325-108 record in Hammons Student Center over its 32-year stint as home of Missouri State basketball, the Lady Bears posted a 10-4 mark at home in 2015-16 to run their seven-year record to 83-38 in JQH Arena.

The "Q" is the fourth regular home of Missouri State women's basketball in the four-decade history of the program. The Lady Bears utilized both McDonald Arena and the Greenwood Laboratory School gym from 1969 until Hammons Student Center opened in 1976. MSU continued to play some of its home games at McDonald through the 1979-80 season.

Fandemonium

With the conclusion of their eighth season in JQH Arena, the Lady Bears finished first in the MVC standings in terms of attendance, drawing 47,594 fans in 14 home dates in 2015-16 for a 3,400 average. MSU has now led the MVC in attendance 24 times in the past 27 seasons, and ranked 32nd nationally in 2015-16.

Since the 1990-91 season, Missouri State has ranked in the top 20 nationally in average attendance 19 times, including a string of 10 straight top-10 finishes from 1992 through the 2000-01 season. The Lady Bears led all of Division I women's basketball in attendance during the 1992-93 season by averaging 7,421 fans per contest.

MSU ranks in the top 10 among all Division I women's basketball programs in average home attendance over the last two-plus decades, and is joined on that list by the likes of Tennessee and Connecticut. Additionally, the Lady Bears have finished in the top 50 nationally in per game attendance for 29 of the last 30 years.

Stiles Gets Statue

MSU assistant coach and NCAA Division I all-time leading scorer Jackie Stiles will have a statue constructed in her likeness outside JQH Arena. The unveiling will take place at a date to be announced later this season.
