Best in the Nation

Missouri State University's Softball Media Guide has been judged as the "Best in the Nation" by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) each of the last two years. In 2017 and 2018, the MSU guide won top honors in the University (largest) Division.

Youth Movement

Bears look to freshmen and sophomores to fill voids of large 2018 senior class

A year after finishing second in the Missouri Valley Conference, the Bears will look to fill several key positions with young talent this spring. Coach Holly Hesse opens her 31st season at Missouri State with eight newcomers primed to support a cast of 10 returnees and five starting position players from a 32-20 squad.

Among the familiar faces in 2019 will be sophomore shortstop Daphne Plummer who led all MVC freshmen in hitting last year while setting Missouri State freshman records for average (.382) and hits (63). She will anchor an MSU infield that also includes veteran senior Kyana Mason, and fellow returning starters Madison Hunsaker and Kelly Metter.

The Bears only returning all-conference player, Darian Frost, will use the 2019 campaign as a redshirt season after off-season surgery, but her battery mates will return in full force. Junior Erin Griesbauer and sophomore Steffany Dickerson combined for 25 starts and 15 wins in the circle a year ago and will anchor MSU's weekend pitching rotation.

The Pitchers

Steffany Dickerson is primed for a breakout season after she finished her freshman year with a 7-6 ledger and 2.74 ERA. She struck out 80 batters in 84.1 innings while earning a dozen starts. She has added confidence and strength over the offseason to make her a potential ace in the rotation and heart-of-the-order hitter as well.

Likewise, Erin Griesbauer is coming off a solid sophomore effort that saw her finish in the top 10 in the MVC in ERA (2.41) while going 8-4 in 13 starts with a team-best three saves. The veteran righty has excellent command and has issued just 30 walks in 129.0 career innings of work.

Supporting the tandem will be two-way threat Madison Hunsaker who started 24 games at DP as a freshman last season and made 16 appearances out of the bullpen. The lefty struck out 33 hitters in 42.0 innings with a 2.50 ERA and finished with a 5-1 record.

Joining the rotation will be freshman Bailey Greenlee, sister of senior catcher Morgan Greenlee, who has great control and competes every pitch.

"Pitching should really be the strength of our defense this year, and that's always a good thing when you have experience and talent," said Hesse. "That's what we have on the mound. There is a lot of depth and experience in our pitching, and that is always where you want to start."

The Infield

Plummer put together an all-conference caliber season in her collegiate debut in 2018 and will hold down the shortstop position again this year. She led the team in doubles (11) and assists (111) and was part of 10 double plays.

"Plummer had a tremendous year last year as a freshman, both offensively and defensively," said Hesse. "She got it done for us on both sides of the ball. If she can continue to grow and improve from that foundation, she is going to have an amazing overall career here."

Hunsaker has the upper hand on taking over first base duties after driving in 17 runs and slugging .405 as a freshman. She has a solid glove and power in the middle of the lineup to be a sturdy slugger for the future.

Mason looks to take over a full-time assignment at third base after starting there 19 times a year ago. The speedster is a prototypical leadoff hitter with the ability to ignite a rally and get into scoring position.

The battle for second base will include Metter, who started 33 games at third base as a freshman last spring, and newcomer Payton Minnis. Metter drove in 16 runs in 2018 and compiled nine extra-base hits, and Minnis is a similar kind of hitter with a high ceiling.

Returnee Carolyn Stock and freshmen Hope Hamilton, Ashton Thomas and Abi LaValley will also factor into the infield rotation with all four providing key support and tremendous potential.

"We will see who steps up and shines as the season goes on," Hesse explained.

The Outfield

With outfield mainstays Erika Velasquez Zimmer and Hailee Vigneaux among MSU's seven seniors in 2018, the Bears' outfield situation for this year will be fun to follow.

Fourth-year junior Hannah Heinrichs started 35 games in right field last season and plans to move to left this spring. Classmate Darby Joerling also got the starting call a dozen times as a sophomore, primarily in right, to lead the cast of returnees.

Hesse will also have the luxury of using utility player and part-time catcher Morgan Greenlee in the outfield, while freshman standout Rachel Weber also looks to find a home in the lineup. Weber has shown exceptional maturity and the ability to deliver timely hits for a Bears' lineup needing additional pop.

Minnis, Hamilton and Bailey Greenlee also have outfield experience and can provide depth for the Bears.

"Hannah can certainly cover a lot of ground and has some experience, as well," said Hesse. "Darby Joerling looks really good. Practicing out there for two years now, look for her to have a big year in the outfield and fill some big holes out there for us. There are also a number of other freshmen who are proving themselves. We will see how that all plays out."

The Catchers

Returning All-MVC catcher Darian Frost will use the 2019 season as a redshirt year, following off-season surgery. Relegating Frost to a bench leadership capacity will be a different role for the Bears' 2018 RBI leader, but one that Hesse notes will certainly impact the team.

"Darian Frost is really the leader – a vocal leader, a leader by example, and the voice of the team – so that's a tough loss for us physically," Hesse said. "She will do most of the pitch calling on the sideline, and I'm happy to have her do that."

Freshman Alex Boze is one of the club's top options behind the plate, bringing a big bat, RBI potential and a solid knowledge of the game to a difficult position.

Likewise, Morgan Greenlee may split time between outfield and catcher to help Boze's transition and give the Bears a steady presence after the Bears went 10-3 with her behind the plate in 2018.

Walk-on Madison Orr, a transfer from John Wood (Ill.) Community College may also get some opportunities this spring. She batted .408 last season for a 20-win team.

The Schedule

The 2019 season will feature seven foes that played in the NCAA Tournament last season. Likewise, the team's 11th season at Killian Stadium includes a full slate of 16 home contests, featuring visits from NCAA qualifiers Arkansas (March 6), Tulsa (April 10) and Missouri Valley rival Drake (April 27-28).

Early-season tournaments feature SEC powers Auburn and Alabama, as well as Minnesota from the Big 10.

"I'm very excited about our 2019 schedule and the variety of teams we will see this season," said Hesse. "There are certainly some big challenges early on and certainly some opponents that we should really be able to compete well against. We look to gain some growth and confidence in that early part of our schedule."

The Valley

Defending MVC regular-season and MVC Tournament champion Drake is the league's preseason favorite again in 2019 with the Bulldogs picking up nine of the 10 possible first-place votes in the preseason coaches poll.

Southern Illinois, which knocked Missouri State out of the MVC Tournament in last year's semifinals, is the preseason No. 2, followed by an upstart Northern Iowa squad in third, Missouri State in fourth and Illinois State in fifth.

"The Valley is always a battle, one through ten," said Hesse. "Anybody can beat anybody, and a three-game series decides a clear winner."

"Drake obviously looks to repeat as champions with their main pitcher returning in Newman. She is one of the best in the country, so they have an advantage there. SIU, Illinois State and UNI always put together competitive teams on the field. With us being young in so many spots, finishing top three or four would be a good year for us."

The Bears will open MVC play with a doubleheader at Southern Illinois March 13, before hosting Loyola in a three-game series at Killian Stadium, March 16-17.

Hesse's 2016 squad finished ranked 13th in the country with a .973 fielding percentage. The Bears went 22-30 and earned a spot in the MVC Tournament in a do-or-die series to end the regular season. Her team rallied to the challenge and carried the momentum to the MVC Tournament quarterfinals.

The 2015 Missouri State team catapulted into the upper echelon of the Valley by finishing second in the regular season and reaching the MVC Tournament title game. Behind Hesse's tutelage, the Bears set team records for home runs (48), bases on balls drawn (181), double plays turned (22), sacrifice flies (14) and saves (10). Senior Rebecca McPherson clubbed a program-high 12 home runs, while junior Erin Duewel set the all-time single season slugging percentage mark at .667 for Hesse's squad that won 17 MVC games, one shy of the school record.

Hesse and her long-time associate head coaches Sue Frederick and Beth Perine won their 500th game as a staff on March 13, 2014, a 4-3 win in the Bears' home opener against SIU Edwardsville.

In 2011, Hesse's Bears overcame an up-and-down regular season to play their best softball when it mattered most. Her Bears, led by Tournament MVP Natalie Rose, won four-straight games to earn the sixth Tournament title in team history. Rose hurled four complete games over three days including shutouts of Bradley and UNI on the opening day. Her team then went 1-2 in the Norman Region of the NCAA Tournament, knocking off Iona in an elimination game.

once again turned to their ace in the circle to surprise the field with wins over two of the league's top four teams, as Rose pitched six straight complete games to lead MSU to three wins in all before regular-season champ Southern Illinois ended the Bears' quest for a sixth NCAA bid with a 4-3 decision in the semifinal round.

At the 2008 MVC Tournament, the Bears rode the right arm of senior All-MVC performer Melissa Porche to wins over Evansville, Southern Illinois and Illinois State, moving MSU to within one game of an NCAA Tournament berth.

Missouri State's 40-17 record in 2006 included a second-place MVC regular season finish at 18-4, marking the 12th season during Hesse's guidance the Bears have finished in the top five of the conference standings. At the MVC Tournament in Omaha, Neb., Missouri State knocked off the regular-season champs, Illinois State, in the semifinals and defeated Wichita State for the title. The Bears' march to the championship included three wins by the score of 4-0, and marked the fourth MSU conference tournament title under Hesse's guidance. Missouri State advanced to the Los Angeles Regional, as the Bears made their fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament under Hesse.

The 2006 team's 40 wins surpassed the school's previous top win total of 38 set by Hesse's 1994 squad. The 2006 season marked the sixth 30-win season under Hesse, who had guided the Bears to an average of 26 wins per season since her arrival in 1989.

Hesse's most successful stretch at Missouri State came from 1994-98, when her teams averaged 32 wins per season, won an MVC regular-season championship and won three MVC Tournament championships. The Bears advanced to the NCAA Tournament in three consecutive seasons from 1996-98.

In 1998, Missouri State became the first team in league history to three-peat, winning its third straight Valley crown and again punching a ticket to the NCAA Tournament. The Bears played in the NCAA Regional at Stillwater, Okla., and ended the season with a 31-22 record.

The 1997 season saw the Bears finish 35-26 and become just the second team in Gateway/MVC history to win back-to-back tourney titles. Missouri State claimed the league crown in Cedar Falls, Iowa, and represented the Valley in the NCAA Regional at Norman, Okla.

The thrilling, come-from-behind Missouri State win over Southern Illinois in the 1997 MVC winners' bracket final was Hesse's 228th career victory, making her the school's winningest softball coach.

In 1996, Hesse led Missouri State to its first MVC title and its first NCAA berth since 1983 as the Bears rang up a 34-22 record, won four straight games to collect the conference crown in Normal, Ill., before competing in the NCAA Regional at Fullerton, Calif.

Hesse won Gateway Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1992, after guiding Missouri State to a 14-4 mark and the regular-season title. In 1994, she led MSU to the Missouri Valley crown with a 13-3 record and was again voted coach of the year. The 1994 Missouri State club set a school record with 38 wins, won the MVC regular-season title by three games and took second in the league tournament, which MSU hosted.

Off the field, Hesse has been active in promoting the sport of softball, women's sports in general and the coaching profession. Nationally, she is one of the founding faculty members of the NCAA Women Coaches Academy, which was created to enhance the skills and perspectives of women coaches, and to aid in the retention of women coaches in intercollegiate athletics. Hesse served also on the Board of Directors for the Alliance of Women Coaches from 20012-16. She currently is on the Board of Directors for True North Sports, which provides innovative educational programs for coaches of both genders and all sports.

Locally, she is the former president of the Springfield chapter of the Women's Intersport Network (WIN), having served in that role from 2009-2012.

In 2003, Hesse authored a coaching book, which is available online, entitled "The Diamond of Success: A Philosophical Model for Coaching."

A 1982 graduate of Creighton University, Hesse came to Missouri State after two years as an assistant coach at her alma mater. Creighton compiled a record of 72-31, won a High Country Conference title and was ranked in the top 20 in Hesse's two seasons there. She was the first female to receive the coveted Father Reinert Scholar-Athlete award in 1982.

Before her two years in Omaha, Hesse served as an assistant coach for two seasons each at Iowa State University and the University of Massachusetts in Amherst, where she earned her master's degree in sport management in 1984.

Hesse also coached for two seasons at Waukon (Iowa) High, her prep alma mater.

Hesse was a standout pitcher at Creighton, where she became the school's first 20-game winner and helped the Jays to three consecutive College World Series appearances including the inaugural NCAA World Series in 1982.

A native of Waukon, Iowa, Hesse won an incredible 161 games as a pitcher for Waukon High. She was inducted into the Iowa Girls High School Pitchers' Hall of Fame in 1979.

Sue Frederick

Associate Head Coach • 29th Season
Alma Mater: Creighton (1989)

Sue Frederick enters her 29th year on the Missouri State softball coaching staff. In her role as associate head coach, Frederick works with the Bear infielders, offense and oversees MSU's strength and conditioning, team travel, practice organization, budgeting and clinic development.

Frederick came to Missouri State straight from a successful playing career at Creighton. Since joining the Missouri State staff, Frederick has seen the Bears compile more than 750 wins and win six conference championships during her time in Springfield. She helped lead the Bears to three straight Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championships from 1996 to 1998 and helped guide them to five NCAA Tournament appearances.

She earned the status of One-Star Master Coach in 2001 after completing courses through the National Fastpitch Coaches College.

A native of Ankeny, Iowa, Frederick played for the Virginia Roadsters in the inaugural Women's Professional Fastpitch season in the summer of 1997.

Frederick, who graduated cum laude from Creighton in 1989, was a four-year standout and career .302 hitter on the Jays' softball team and set school career records for hits (209) and stolen bases (47). As a sophomore, she set CU single-season marks with 69 hits and 41 runs scored and then tied her hit record with 69 in her senior campaign.

Over a three-year stretch, Frederick had 31 straight successful stolen base attempts, a feat which puts her 23rd on the all-time Division I list and her .423 batting mark as a sophomore in 1987 ranked 10th in the nation that year and second in CU history.

A two-time all-region first teamer, Frederick helped the Jays to High Country Conference titles in 1986 and 1987, with a College World Series berth in 1986. She was a first team all-conference

Kaitlin Beason

Graduate Assistant Coach
First Season
Alma Mater: Missouri State (2017)

After a successful playing career that culminated in an NFCA All-Region first-team recognition in 2018, Kaitlin Beason joined the MSU staff in the fall of 2018 as a graduate assistant coach.

By any measure -- in the classroom, in the circle, at the plate, or in the field -- Beason left her mark on the MSU program during her career.

She was a two-time honoree on the MVC Scholar-Athlete first team, earned the MVC Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award three times, and made the MVC Honor Roll on three occasions. Beason was also recognized as an NFCA Scholar-Athlete in 2016 and 2017.

In the circle, she earned 21 wins and struck out 105 batters in 47 starts. Her best campaign was in 2017 when she was 12-11 with a 2.37 ERA -- ranking sixth in the MVC -- with 11 complete games.

Beason's swing was also lethal, finishing third in program history with 21 career home runs with 87 RBI, 19 doubles and 70 walks. In 2018, she hit .333 with 7 home runs and 24 RBI with team-best 23 walks. Her walk-off solo homer to defeat Indiana State on Senior Day at Killian Stadium was one of her most memorable moments.

In the field, Beason played an errorless senior season at first base, establishing a new program record with no mishaps in 293 defensive chances which helped her earn NFCA All-Region first-team, All-MVC second-team, MVC Defensive Team and MVC All-Tournament Team honors. She finished her career with 370 putouts, 113 assists and a .986 fielding average.

The Webb City, Mo., native earned her degree in Psychology in December of 2017.

MISSOURI STATE

SEASON REVIEW

2018 Season Highlights

♦ Late-Inning Heroics

Darian Frost's walk-off grand slam against Southern Illinois on April 17 was her second game-ending home run of the 2018 season. She also hit a walk-off solo homer in the 9th inning of MSU's win over Illinois State on March 17.

Likewise, on April 28, Kaitlin Beason hit a walk-off solo homer to defeat Indiana State on Senior Day at Killian Stadium, 5-4. MSU won 10 games in 2018 in its final at-bat with six total walk-offs.

♦ Solid Win Total

Racking up 32 wins, the Bears' 2018 campaign was the squad's second-winningest season since 1997. Over the last 22 campaigns, only the team's 35-26 overall record in 1997 and a remarkable 40-17 record in 2006 surpassed the 2018 season win tally.

♦ All-American Scholar-Athletes

Nine Bears were honored by the NFCA as Easton/All-American Scholar-Athletes with Allie Alvstad, Kaitlin Beason, Erin Griesbauer, Hannah Heinrichs, Sara Jones, Holly Kelley, Carolyn Stock, Erika Velasquez Zimmer and Carsten Warner earning national distinction. It was Jones' and Velasquez Zimmer's fourth All-American Scholar-Athlete recognition and third for Beason and Heinrichs. Alvstad, Griesbauer, Kelley and Warner became two-time honorees.

♦ Heck of a Month for Plummer

Freshman standout Daphne Plummer hit .478 (22-for-46) during the month of April with five doubles and a .630 slugging percentage. Named the MVC Player of the Week on April 30, she hit .714 (5-for-7) in MSU's series sweep of Indiana State and had a club-high 28 hits with 2 outs.

♦ Record-Breaking Glove

Senior Kaitlin Beason broke the Missouri State record for most defensive chances in a season without an error. The starting first baseman was perfect in 293 chances and tallied 266 putouts with 27 assists and 12 double plays to earn MVC All-Defensive Team honors.

♦ Multiple All-Region Players

For the first time since 2015 and just the seventh time in program history, MSU boasted multiple players on the NFCA All-Midwest Region Team. Kaitlin Beason (1B) earned first-team honors after batting .333 with 7 homers, while fellow senior Holly Kelley (P) earned third team honors. Kelley fanned a team-high 113 batters and compiled a 12-5 record in the circle with 8 complete games.

♦ Power Surge

Kaitlin Beason finished her career with 21 home runs, which ranks No. 3 on MSU's career list. Her 7 homers in 2018 ranked 7th in the MVC.

♦ Zimmer Sets New Speed Standard

Senior outfielder Erika Velasquez Zimmer broke MSU's career stolen bases record in 2018, completing her 196-game career with 63 successful steals. She also ranks fifth all-time at Missouri State in hits (197) and runs scored (112).

♦ Four All-MVC Selections

For just the third time in the last 10 seasons, the Bears landed four players on the All-MVC softball team with Darian Frost (C) earning All-MVC first team distinction, while Daphne Plummer (SS), Kaitlin Beason (1B/P) and Erika Velasquez Zimmer (OF) claimed second-team honors.

♦ Double Plays Abundant

The Bears turned 22 double plays in 2018 (0.42 per game), which ranked 37th nationally and second in the MVC. Likewise, MSU's .970 fielding percentage ranked as the 39th-best among all NCAA Division I programs.

♦ Freshman Batting Records Fall

Shortstop Daphne Plummer surpassed teammate Velasquez Zimmer's MSU freshman records for hits (63) and batting average (.382) in a season. She led all Valley freshmen in both categories and became the first MSU rookie to hit better than .365 in a single season.

♦ Classroom Excellence

The Bears continued to rank as one of the nation's best academic teams, finishing the 2018 season with a 3.510 grade-point average, which ranked MSU as the 26th-best academic program among all NCAA Division I schools.

♦ Triple Down

Missouri State smacked 16 triples during the season (0.31 per game), which was tops in the Missouri Valley and ranked 17th nationally. Erika Velasquez Zimmer, Madison Hunsaker and Kelly Metter led the Bears with three triples apiece.

All-American Barb Gaines

Infielder Barb Gaines (right) became the first Missouri State softball All-America pick as a senior in 1993. She was named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-America Third Team after authoring one of the most outstanding careers in the program's history.

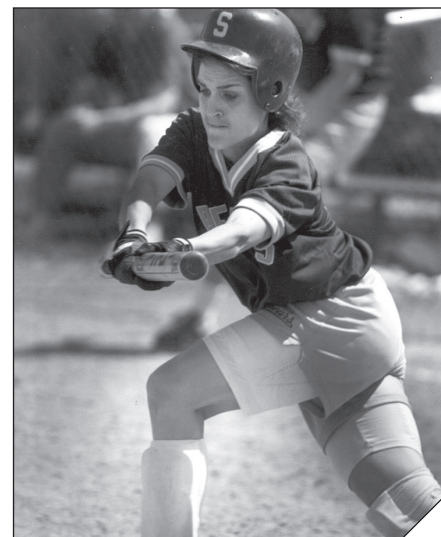

A native of St. Louis, Gaines enjoyed a brilliant senior season, ranking among the national top-10 in batting average for most of the season and finishing with a then-school record .442 mark. Gaines ranked first in the Missouri Valley Conference in hits (68) and second in stolen bases (22).

The first player in Gateway/MVC history to win all-league honors four straight years, Gaines closed her career with five Missouri State single-season records and eight career marks. She still holds the career records for hits (252), total chances (1,287), and batting average (.403), is second in stolen bases (58), and at bats (626), third in putouts (1,013) and fourth in runs (113).

Gaines received the Missouri State Outstanding Female Athlete award in 1992 and 1993 and was inducted into the Missouri State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. On April 20, 2013, she became the first player to have her jersey retired by the Missouri State softball program.

Tournament Field

The field for the 2019 NCAA Softball Tournament will consist of 64 teams and will be announced on May 12. For the 13th consecutive year, softball will use the same format as Division I baseball, sending four teams each to 16 regional sites with the winners advancing to Super Regionals. The Super Regional winners will move on to the Women's College World Series, held May 30-June 5, in Oklahoma City. In all, 32 conferences will receive automatic bids and 32 teams will receive at-large bids.

Automatic Bids

Regionals and Super Regionals

Sixteen regional championships each consisting of four teams will be contested Friday through Sunday, May 17-19. Each double-elimination regional will be hosted by one of the schools competing in that regional.

The 16 regional winners will advance to the Super Regionals played Thursday through Sunday, May 23-26, again hosted by one of the two institutions involved at each site.

The eight Super Regional winners will advance to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

2019 Women's College World Series

The 38th annual NCAA Division I softball finals will be played Thursday, May 30, through Wednesday, June 5, at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Okla., with the University of Oklahoma and the Oklahoma City All Sports Association serving as hosts.

The WCWS will consist of two four-team brackets with a double-elimination format. The winner of each four-team bracket will advance to the championship, which will be played as a best-of-three series. For more information, visit NCAA.com/Championships/softball/d1.

Missouri State in the NCAA Tournament

The Bears have competed in six NCAA Division I Tournaments, in 1983, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2006 and 2011. In 1983, Missouri State went 1-2 in dropping a best-of-three series at Missouri. In 1996, the Bears were 0-2 in regional play at Fullerton, Calif., and again went 0-2 at the 1997 Norman, Okla., Regional. In the 1998 NCAA Regional in Stillwater, Okla., Missouri State pulled off the biggest upset of the 32-team tournament as the Bears, seeded fourth in the regional, stunned ninth-ranked Stanford, the regional's top seed, 5-2 in the first round. It was a milestone win for MSU, which had gone two-and-out in the NCAA the two previous years. It marked the Bears' first NCAA win under Hesse and the first by the program since 1983. Missouri State was the only #4 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in the opening round of the tournament that season.

National Invitational Softball Championship

This season marks the third year of the return of the National Invitational Softball Championship (NISC). Following selections by the NCAA Tournament field on May 12, the NISC will select the next-best 48 teams to its championship field. Eight regional sites, each hosting six teams, will conduct double-elimination tournaments, May 16-18. The championship round, consisting of the eight regional winners, will take place May 24-26 in Fort Collins, Colo.

There will be 32 automatic qualifiers, consisting of the next team from each conference not selected through NCAA criteria, and 16 at-large qualifiers, based on RPI; win-loss record of .500 or better; record vs. top 50 RPI. For more information, visit WomensNISC.com.
